- Part Cherokee, Christian is a true country boy. His parents met in the rodeo and he was raised on country music.
- Christian grew up moving back and forth between Norman, Oklahoma and Texas. Moving often toughened his spirit.
- Christian left college for Los Angeles to pursue acting. He survived solely on ranch style beans and listened to KZLA to remind him of home.
- Kane packed Los Angeles' infamous Viper Room and introduced the Sunset Strip and Hollywood crowd to country music.
- Hooked, Kane spent time in Nashville for the next 6 years – writing, playing gigs, and always bringing country music back to Los Angeles.
- Acting credits include movies "Just Married" and "Friday Night Lights" as well as the TV series "Angel" and current starring role on TNT's "Leverage." Nominated for the 2008 CMT Music Video Award for Supporting Character of The Year for Carrie Underwood's "So Small."
- Debut single "The House Rules" to impact radio October 2010 with full album to follow. Music video directed by "Leverage" co-star and Academy Award Winner Timothy Hutton.
- Digital EP released in March 2010 landed at #3 on the iTunes Country Chart, #13 on the iTunes All-Genre Album Chart, and #5 on Billboard's Heatseekers Chart.
- Has shared the stage with Big & Rich, Brooks & Dunn, Eric Church and others. Has performed to SOLD OUT houses at legendary venues that include the Los Angeles House of Blues, Whisky-a-Go-Go, Viper Room, and The Troubadour and Barfly in London, UK.
- Kane's favorite quote: "90% of life is showing up." (Woody Allen)
