Jules Asner

Jules Asner became known to millions as the 'Face of the E Network.' During her seven years at E! Jules helped create and was the original host of the 'Wild On' series, traveling to 25 countries in a year and a half.

Following 'Wild On,' Jules segued to hosting E! News Live with Steven Kmetko. As the Co-Anchor of News, Jules covered the Emmy Nominations Live, the Golden Globe and Academy Award nominations live..as well as providing red carpet coverage of the Oscars, Emmy's and Grammy's. Jules also continued her travels for E! reporting from the Sundance film Festival as well as the Cannes and Venice Film Festivals.

After Five years of hosting various specials for E!, Jules developed her own one hour interview show, 'Revealed with Jules Asner.' The premiere episode featuring a rare one hour interview with Julia Roberts was the highest rated show in E! history. Some of the biggest stars in Hollywood sat down with Jules for 'Revealed,' including Gwyneth Paltrow, George Clooney, Hugh Grant, Pierce Brosnan and Faith Hill. 'Revealed with Jules Asner' was honored with a Gracie Award for 'Most Outstanding Interview Program' as well as a Prism Award for Outstanding informational show. Jules was also nominated two years in a row by the Publicist's Guild for favorite television interviewer.

In 2002 Jules Asner left her longtime home at E! to sign a development Deal with Sony Pictures Television to host and produce a new talk show. "Life and Style" premiered nationally in syndication in September of 2004, and was seen daily in 95% of the country.

Recently Jules chose to take a sabbatical from television to concentrate on writing. Her first novel, "Whacked" will be published in early 2008 by Weinstein Co. Books.

Jules began her entertainment reporting career in 1994, contributing stories to national and international outlets such as "Extra", and "Good Morning Britain." She's also appeared on "Good Morning America", "Entertainment Tonight", and "Access Hollywood." Additionally, Jules hosted several episodes of A&E's popular live concert series specials, "Live By Request."

She got her start in entertainment at age 15, when she was discovered in the Elite Model "Look of the Year" competition, after which she modeled in New York and Europe. She later attended Arizona State University and the University of California, Los Angeles, where she studied political science. She lives in New York City with her husband, filmmaker Steven Soderbergh.
