THE REVIEWS ARE IN....

"Last night I met a young singer named Amante who knocked the roof off the building with his music at that wonderful cancer dinner in New York."

President George Bush

"I just wanted to take the time to write and let you know what wonderful audience response Michael Amante got when he opened for Don Rickles at Stardust Resort and Casino. Every performance had multiple standing ovations for this talented young singer. With his GQ good looks and his powerful voice he was an audience pleaser for sure."

Terry Jenkins – Dir. of Entertainment, Boyd Gaming

"A sold out house (1,500 seats) and nine standing ovations... Need we say more? The Pavarotti show was exceptional and the concept itself made marketing the show very easy."

Numa Saisselin –Executive Director, Count Basie Theatre, Red Bank, NJ

"This was my first time working with Michael and he was an absolute pleasure to deal with. But more importantly he was incredible on stage. His voice was astounding and his range of material was fabulous. This crowd is usually slow to get up and applaud and they leapt out of their seats 3 times! I am only disappointed that I have not worked with Michael before, but I certainly plan on working with him in the future."

Tom Jones – Jones & Brown Productions, Inc.

"The show itself was unbelievable. What a voice. What natural charisma. What a fantastic orchestra. Four encores. Five standing ovations. My client, his board of directors and his members were thrilled beyond expectation. I had never experienced such spontaneous rapture from an audience in nearly 20 years of producing shows."

Randy Richie – VP of Entertainment, PGI

"Throughout the evening, the tantalizing tenor sang full out, climaxing each number on a high note, seductively spinning it into a mellifluous sound that seemed to go on forever. "When does he breath?" wondered one audience member, who was also waiting to exhale."

Lorraine Smorol – Syracuse New Times
