

NANCY LUBLIN
Biography

Nancy Lublin is the Founder and Executive Director of Dress for Success; the non-profit organization that provides suits to low income women when they have job interviews.

After graduating from Brown University in 1993, she received her Master degree from Oxford University as a Marshall Scholar. She founded Dress for Success in 1995 (while a full-time law student at New York University School of Law) with a $5,000 inheritance from her great-grandfather.

Since then, Dress for Success programs have been launched in over 58 cities across North America, England, and New Zealand.

Dress for Success has been featured on 60 Minutes, Oprah, The Today Show, People Magazine, and The New York Times. Nancy's youth, passion, and commitment to what she calls the "DotOrg" model will inspire.
